

Dr. Jill Hendrickson is a Licensed Psychologist who serves as CAA's Behavioral Health Director. She provides individual and couples counseling as well as ADHD and Learning Disability Testing. Dr. Hendrickson works with children, adolescents, and adults. She has worked in Community Mental Health, private practice, and in the college setting. Dr. Hendrickson teaches at Kent State and is on the staff at East Liverpool City Hospital. Dr. Hendrickson has worked in Mental Health Counseling for over 15 years.

Graduate School

University of Akron, PhD in Counseling Psychology
Youngstown State University-Masters in Counseling

Undergraduate Degree

The Ohio State University - Bachelor's Degree in Psychology

License / Certification

Licensed Psychologist
Licensed Clinical Counselor

Associations

American Psychological Association